A NOTE FROM OUR 2015 PRESIDENT

Hi every one, welcome to the first P&C newsletter for 2015. Thank you to those brave parents who attended the AGM Meeting last week. We had a lot to cover and most of the procedures were compulsory to setting up at that time. By-laws, constitutions, and a fundraising sub-committee were established. It was a mixed evening of serious formalities and my dab of levity. We often hear how someone attended a meeting and walked out of it with a hefty position, Yes, me! That was something we didn’t want as a deterrent for possible new members. In doing so, most of the original members offered to be re-instated, benefitting as an experienced base, however I do hope to coax some of you who are interested in contributing your ideas and valuable involvement along the way to join in. This is as easy as coming along to a General Meeting, held each month. These meetings are less formal and more time is available for open floor discussions, or even just turning up to a P&C event and giving a much appreciated hand. Most contributions continue to benefit generations to come. It would be wonderful for you to become a member and be a part of something that will add to our children’s years at school. This is your P&C, you, ARE the P&C, I’m just a parent who is there to show you that with a genuine interest, together with the school, we really can make Cessnock Public a very cool place to learn. That, is something I do take seriously.

UPCOMING EVENTS

March 4th
Facebook Page Launch

National P&C Day - Free morning tea outside Cooinda - watch for the note home.

State Elections 28th March
We will be holding a BBQ Sausage Sizzle fundraiser when you come along to vote.
Please encourage everyone you know who will be voting to donate spare change to us or to buy a sausage sandwich.
We will be raising funds towards the cost of a performance by The Protectors.
The Protectors is educational theatre that addresses anti-bullying in schools and provides support and confidence for vulnerable children. Check out the website: www.brainstormproductions.edu.au/primary-school-shows/the-protectors

EASTER
At the Easter Hat Parade we will, as usual, have the Easter Raffle, but we will also be turning it into an Easter Festival.
Keep an eye out for more information.
